

Sparkman, John J.

2 April 1963

MEMORANDUM FOR: The DCI

1. This memorandum is for information only.
2. In the attached interview, Senator Sparkman states: "The whole world knows that the Central Intelligence Agency is engaged in that type of work," (spying). Sparkman also states there should be "a full disclosure" on Cuba. "The facts ought to be told as to just how it developed, and let it be known that it was a CIA operation."
3. He also alleges that Mr. Dulles had stated: "The Cubans would rise up and support them," the invaders. "As a matter of fact, it was bad intelligence that Mr. Dulles gave us." Senator Sparkman also stated that "at no time was air support promised."
4. He concluded his interview with this statement: "... and I think that gives ample reason for the support of the Resolution to set up a watch dog committee over CIA."
